WELCOME TO WEEK 9

MERIT AWARD WINNERS: Congratulations to the following Merit Award winners at last week's assembly.

Charlie Clark, Faithe Waller, Olive Denley, Sumira Mahoney, Carmen Simpson, Seth Creighton, Kali Swift, Archie Denley, Georgina Smith, Riley Dolan, Elizabeth Ward.

WET WEATHER: The last two weeks has seen some very wet weather and road closures around our area. Although every effort is made to ensure minimal disruption at school there are occasions when mother nature steps in and nothing can be done. Student safety and supervision are our priority and I thank everyone for their cooperation and consideration yesterday.

HARMONY DAY: Today we celebrated Harmony Day with the students and teachers enjoying tasty dishes from many different cultures. Harmony Day is all about recognising the many different cultures and nationalities that make up our lucky country. Many students also dressed in traditional clothing from countries around the world. Well done everyone!

With zucchini and mushroom for $5.00. All orders must be in Wednesday even if you can't pay until Friday. We just need to know how much to make so no one misses out.

For recess this week I would like to trial a couple of new options.. Seeing you liked the fried rice, we are serving this in a small bowl for $1 and a Mexican dip with carrot and celery sticks and corn chips for $1. Other items like mini muffins, oat biscuits, Mt bread roll sushi, and fruit smoothies will still be 50c.

CANTEEN REPORT:

Thank you to our volunteers last week, Katie, Rosie, Jenny and Ann. Jenny and Ann were fantastic first timers and even had time for a couple of tea breaks! And thank you for your lovely manners kids as it made these grandmothers proud of what a great little school we have!

I will be needing help next term and a roster will be sent out soon, even if you can do one day a term it helps as we are all busy mums!
