WELCOME TO WEEK 10

EASTER HAT PARADE AND FAMILY DAY: Last Thursday was a fantastic day! We were joined throughout the day by lots of parents, family members, ex students and community visitors. The Easter hat creations were amazing and the students and visitors really enjoyed the day. It was wonderful to see parents jumping in and helping all the students with their hats. These types of family and community days are essential in maintaining our strong ties with the parents and wider community of Chatsworth Island Public School. The kids also seem to look forward to this day more and more each year and the Easter hat creations are becoming more incredible. We are certainly maintaining our directions of Student and Community Engagement and Citizenship! Well done everyone!!!

SCHOOL CROSS COUNTRY CARNIVAL: Our school Cross Country Carnival will be held this Friday April 6. Students will walk the course at 9:15am and the races will begin at 9:45am. 8/9/10 year old run 2km and 11 and 12 year olds run 3 km. Our infants will also participate in a shorter run. Program: 8/9 Years: 9:45am, 10 Years: 10:15am, 11 and 12 Years: 10:45am (approx.). Come along and cheer on the kids!

WHOLE SCHOOL ASSEMBLY THIS THURSDAY: Our whole school assembly will be held this Thursday April 5 in the school library at 2:30pm.

STILL LOTS HAPPENING! There are still two weeks of Term 1 remaining. Years 3-6 will be completing end of term revision assessments next week. We also have the Responsible Pet Program for K/1/2 next Tuesday, a special Water Wise assembly on Wednesday with a visit from the Mayor and our ANZAC march and service at the Cenotaph next Thursday April 12 at 10:30am.

ANZAC DAY APRIL 25: Once again ANZAC Day falls in the school holidays this year. We will be holding a special march and service at the Cenotaph next Thursday April 12. Students will march to the service at 10:30am and our SRC will conduct the service. All parents and community members are invited to attend.

ON APRIL 25 (ANZAC DAY) there will be a Dawn Service at the Cenotaph at 5:30am. This service is coordinated by the RSL Sub Branch of Chatsworth Island/ Woombah and Iluka. Our school leaders Sumira and Jay will present the Anzac Address on this special morning. I encourage all school and community members to attend.
